- Price filtering step by step
  1. At first search by a Brand Name (appear of: Dosage form, Concentration and Volume will be in suggested list in the brackets)
  2. Look for corresponding Generic Name/ID and Dosage form
  3. Display a graph of a list of Brand names (by different companies) corresponding to that Generic Name/ID and Dosage form but with same Dosage form, Concentration and Volume.
  4. Show price graph
     - Filtering conditions to show graph: (see problem folder)

- o If no price show it at last or what??
- o If no concentration, filter with same volume (with that generic name and dose form)
- o If no volume, filter with same concentration (with that generic name and dose form)
- o If no concentration and volume, filter with same generic name and dose form
- o No error massage display
- o ...suppose if we search for Whitfield Ointment 10gm (see the picture below, last row) in the search box... It will look for only "10gm" in the volume column....and if the value "10gm" is missing for that generic name, dosage form and strength, it will automatically remove that drug brand name from the graph (like Darmol, Ensal)...and the graph result for the situation below will be of only two companies...as "10gm" is only present twice in the picture below...
